SIR KNIGHT _____

MESSAGE FROM YOUR COMMANDER

Sir Knights: May I express to you my sincere and personal thanks for the confidence expressed in me, by re-electing me Commander for a second year. With the continued help of those faithful Past Commanders, Officers, Guards and Sir Knights of this fine old Commandery, I will continue to give of my best, that we may carry on in the tradition that has earned for us the reputation which we so proudly own. I bespeak again your help and guidance in performing this task.

John Reid

REV. MORTON D. DUNNING CLASS

The first Class of this new Templar Year will be named in honor of our esteemed Prelate Emeritus, who gave so much to Boston Commandery. With the addition of Sir Knight Edward Papkee to the Membership Committee, working along with Em. Sir James C. Bayley, Chairman and Sir Knight Edward H. Casey, we feel that we will attain the new candidates necessary to maintain our position at the top. Only with the support of all Sir Knights, can this goal be realized, and we, therefore, earnestly ask that you contact any one of the Membership Committee, or your Commander, regarding any prospective candidates you may have. This Class should be large enough to demonstrate to Mort, in what high esteem we hold him.

ORDER OF THE RED CROSS IN DRAMATIC FORM

At the October Conclave, we will begin our activities with an Exemplification of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross in Full Costume and with Dramatic Effects, under the direction of Sir Knight Charles D. Harrington. Em. Sir James S. W. Rogers will portray the Sovereign Master; Rev. Sir Charles E. Pedersen, Excellent High Priest; and Sir E. Wayne Donaldson will play the part of Zerubbabel. There is still room on this Team for some likely talent, both speaking and non-speaking parts. Any Sir Knight who is at all interested, please contact our Generalissimo, Sir Knight Charles D. Harrington.

CONGRATULATIONS

We tip our hats to the following Sir Knights, who are assuming important positions in other Masonic Bodies, and thereby bringing further honors to Boston Commandery. Sir Knight George Locus, our Junior Warden, is the new Worshipful Master of Hammatt Lodge; Sir Knight Howard L. MacOdum, our Senior Warden, will assume the Office of Worshipful Master of Zetland Lodge in December; Sir Knight Charles J. Wilkins will be the new Worshipful Master of Loyalty Lodge next month; Sir Knight Arthur B. Chartier is the new Presiding High Priest of St. Andrews Royal Arch Chapter; and one of our new members, Sir Knight Robert J. Roulston will be the leader of a new Chapter of De Molay which has just been organized in Milton. To all of these, we say Congratulations, and wish them prosperous administrations in their new duties.

We would like you to become acquainted with our new Warder, Sir Knight Robert S. Andrews. We feel that he has what is needed to carry on in Boston Commandery, and think you will agree as you get to know him. Make his acquaintance, and welcome him as your youngest Officer.

We extend to Sir Knight Harold A. Budreau a sincere vote of thanks for eleven years of faithful and devoted service to Boston Commandery in the Office of Recorder. His loss could only be supplanted by such a man as he who was elected in his place. We welcome Rt. Em. Sir Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., as our new Recorder, and are thankful for these faithful, busy men, who have Boston Commandery at heart.

WATCH FOR ANNOUNCEMENT OF OUR THEATRE PARTY NEXT MONTH.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS:

Christmas joy and Easter worship are periods of special significance for Templary. We represent the crest of the York or American Rite. Throughout the year during which it was my privilege, as a Sir Knight of Boston Commandery, to serve as Grand Commander of Knights Templar for Massachusetts and Rhode Island, there came a welcome opportunity repeatedly to raise the battle cry: "Templary is the New Testament of Masonry."

Templary, in common with Freemasonry generally, has a glorious heritage. But sometimes we fail to realize how we need more than mere tradition in order to survive. Boston has ceased to be ye olde Colonial town! We are the centre of a great industrial commercial area. Economic and population changes in this great cosmopolitan community, as the years race by, greatly threaten not only the growth, but even the continued existence, of our now great Order of Christian Masonry.

Boston Commandery is still the oldest Commandery in continued existence in the world. We are the largest Commandery of Knights Templar in all New England. But to assure the continued future growth, prosperity, and fraternal activity of Boston Commandery, in the cause of Christian Knighthood, we must constantly recruit new strength. Filling gaps in our ranks involves conscious effort. Prospective new Sir Knights don't just gravitate towards Templary; if we are to protect and preserve Christian Masonry in Boston, YOU have a duty. You and I must fight to perpetuate forever, --not merely seek to commemorate, --the past and present glories of Boston Commandery, --and Christian Templary itself.

For the three months ending October 31st, among the 50 Commanderies in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, Boston Commandery stood 10'th in the number of applications received.

If you find it difficult now either to attend our conclaves, or to enlist some new recruit to fill your place on the battle line, you at least can do your share by providing for the future some of those reserve sinews so necessary in the "cold war" valiantly waged by our 20'th century soldiers of the Cross, --a donation now, or in your will, for Boston Commandery's Endowment Fund.

Imbued with the inspirational spirit of Christmas, so singularly dear to all Knights Templar, let each of us make a New Year Resolution to rally NOW to the cause of Christian Knighthood.

Yours with and in the Faith

Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr.
Recorder

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDER

May I take this opportunity to extend to every Sir Knight and his family, our Best Wishes of this Holiday Season. To a Scot like myself, New Years is even more important, so included in this is the hope that everything desired may come to you and yours, in the New Year to start soon.

Our sincere thanks go to you all for the generous response to our Annual Christmas appeal. Please let your Commander know of any Sir Knight whom you know to be down at this period, so that we may use this fund to help those of our fraters who need cheering at this time. It is a distinct pleasure and privilege to visit with these Sir Knights during the Holiday Season, and it will be done again this year, as in the past.

We have a grand heritage in Boston Commandery, and it is a privilege to belong. There are many who would like to come in with us, and are just waiting for some Sir Knight to approach them. Never over-look this opportunity, to give some other person the same pleasure you are enjoying, by belonging to this Grand old Boston No. 2. Incidentally, this would be the finest Christmas Gift you could give to your Commander - One Petition. A new Class will start in January. Why not get one of your buddies in on it?

Many thanks for the well-wishes that are starting to come in for this Season, which are returned to you a hundred-fold. This is the spirit which keep us where we belong - at the Top.

Fraternally yours,

John Reid
Commander
